

Rollover Report

January 2025 – February 2025

31st January 2025

OVERVIEW

Index Rollover Activity :

The broader market has exhibited tentative signs of recovery following the Reserve Bank of India's announcement to acquire G-sec securities totaling ₹60,000 crore through open market operations in three tranches. This initiative is expected to enhance liquidity in the equity segment. The market had entered an extremely oversold condition, particularly after the panic witnessed on January 27th. Approximately 90% of NSE-listed stocks are currently trading below key moving averages, including the 10, 20, and 50 DMA, suggesting that the near-term incentive to add short positions is relatively low. Since then, the market has experienced a recovery in breadth, as evidenced by improvements in rollover activity from a technical standpoint.

Top gainers were SRF, IDEA, LTTS, while SHRIRAMFIN & NMDC were major losers in January series.

Sector-wise Rollover Activity :

⇒ From the sectoral action, high rollovers were seen in Telecom, Diversified & Chem&ferti on the expiry day. Derivative stocks like IDEA, SRF, UPL remain on the radar for the January series.

⇒ From the sectoral action, low rollovers were seen in Consumer Durables, IT & Cement . Stocks like JK CEMENT , WIPRO remain on the radar.
