

NIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT AT 25240-25110

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The benchmark index has finally broken out of its prolonged consolidation range, closing decisively above the key resistance hurdle of 25,200. This bullish move, supported by positive price action, suggests that the recent sideways trend has concluded and the uptrend is likely to resume. The zone of 25,100-25,200, which was previously acting as a ceiling, will now serve as a strong support base for any minor pullbacks. With this breakout, the index is poised to re-test its high near 25,500. Options data now indicates a significant build-up of put open interest at the 25,200 strike, reinforcing this level as the new immediate floor.

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The banking index displayed exceptional strength, leading the market's charge with a powerful breakout above its stiff resistance near 56,200. The formation of a strong bullish candle signals aggressive buying and a clear shift in momentum in favour of the bulls. Following this breakout, the immediate support has now shifted higher to the 56,200 level. The index has opened up clear skies for a move towards its next major milestone and previous high, the 57,000 mark. On the options front, we can expect significant put writing activity at the 56,500 strike, as traders establish a new and higher support base.
