

NIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT AT 25500-25380

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The benchmark index confirmed the bearish breakdown, with the NIFTY 50 seeing significant follow-through selling and closing further below its 10-20 DMA cloud support. The critical "Gap Zone" support at 25,640 has now officially flipped into a strong resistance level for any potential bounces. The selling pressure has dragged the index down to test its next psychological support level around 25,500. A failure to hold this support could open the doors for a deeper correction towards 25,380. The momentum, as indicated by the bearish MACD crossover, remains clearly in favour of the bears. Options data likely shows heavy call writing at 25,700, solidifying this new ceiling.

BANKNIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT 57500-57000

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The banking index correction has intensified, as the index decisively breached its crucial "make-or-break" support at 57,600 and closed below it. This breakdown confirms that the short-term trend has turned negative, and the recent all-time highs are now a formidable top. The former support at 57,600 will now act as a strong immediate resistance, with the 58,000 mark being an even bigger hurdle. With this key support gone, the index is now vulnerable to a slide towards its next psychological support at 57,000. The bearish crossover on the MACD indicator is accelerating, confirming the increasing downward momentum. Options data likely shows a major shift, with the 57,500 and 58,000 strikes attracting significant call open interest.
