

NIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT AT 25750-25640

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The benchmark index has signalled a significant bullish reversal, staging a powerful breakout above its key resistance zone of 25,640-25,750 and closing comfortably above its short term moving average cloud. This move, with two consecutive strong green candles, negates the recent bearish breakdown and flips the short-term trend back to positive. This former resistance zone will now act as a crucial support base for any pullbacks. With the downward momentum clearly broken, the index is now poised to re-challenge its previous high near the 26,100 mark. Options data shows significant unwinding of call positions, with put writers now expected to aggressively build a new floor at the 25,800 strike.

BANKNIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT 58000-57600

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The banking index continues to be the market leader, exhibiting exceptional strength as it consolidates near its all-time high. The index is holding firmly above the psychological 58,000 mark, which has now been established as a solid immediate support level. This price action represents a healthy pause, suggesting the index is gathering momentum before its next upward leg. The bulls remain in complete control, and the index looks set to challenge the all-time high resistance zone of 58,500-58,550 in the coming sessions. The options data confirms this bullish sentiment, with the 58,000 strike attracting significant put writing, solidifying it as a strong base of support.
