

NIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT AT 24000-23860

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The benchmark index closed at 24,080, down 95 points, in a session that opened at 24,118, made only a marginal high of 24,129, then sold off to a low of 23,994, briefly slipping below the round 24,000 level and testing the support flagged Friday before a partial recovery held the close just above it. This extends the run below the 50 DMA, to three sessions, and MACD line has pushed further negative, with the histogram narrowing, both confirming the loss of momentum that began last week. RSI slipped to 44, extending its slide below the midline for a fourth straight session. Volume was the heaviest session in months, more than double the recent average, and coming on a down day this is a genuine distribution signal that outweighs the modest single session price decline. This also marks a sharp divergence from Bank Nifty's own session, which broke out decisively the same day. A close back below 23,994 would confirm the 24,000 support is broken, opening 23,860 as the next test.

BANKNIFTY SPOT : IMMEDIATE SUPPORT 57500-57000

Source – TradingView, BP Equities Research

The banking index closed at 58,025, up 529 points, closing exactly at the session high after opening at 57,354, dipping early to a low of 57,187 in the same defended dip pattern seen throughout this consolidation, then rallying without pause for the rest of the session, a decisive bullish marubozu that clears the psychological 58,000 level on a closing basis for the first time in this recovery after two prior rejections there in the past two weeks. The close now sits comfortably above both the 50 DMA and the 200 DMA, resolving the sandwich structure that had defined the index for the past week firmly to the upside. RSI advanced, and MACD line surged, with the histogram widening sharply and the signal line improving, both confirming the breakout with genuine momentum rather than lagging behind it. Volume nearly doubled from Friday's, lending strong conviction to the move, in sharp contrast to the benchmark index's own heavy volume decline the same session. With 58,000 now reclaimed, the next objective is the recent swing high near 58,700, while a pullback holding above the reclaimed 50 DMA would keep the breakout structure intact.
